THE RACE:

It's not over until it's over.

“...let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which does so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.” (Heb. 12:1)

“Know you not that they which run in a race run all, but one receives the prize. So run, that you may obtain.” (I Cor. 9:24)

NOT JUST TO THE SWIFT:

“...I saw under the Sun, that the Race is not to the swift....” (Ecl. 9:11)

"No man is ever whipped until he quits, --in his own mind.... with Persistence you will win." (Napoleon Hill)

Sooner or later the one who wins is the one who thinks he can.

YAHWEH'S INVESTMENT:

Yahweh has invested time, the life of His Son, the lives of martyrs to preserve the Cause of the true Church.

PERSONAL PRICE:

The truth often comes by personal sacrifice.

Moses fasted 40 days to get the 10 commandments and judgments.

Moses fasted 40 days to save Israel from Yahweh's wrath.

The prophet Daniel fasted two weeks to obtain new revelation. Yahshua fasted 40 days to defeat Satan.

WHAT MANNER SHOULD WE BE?

In these End Times "...what manner of persons ought you to be in all holy conversation and godliness." (2 Pet, 3:11)
...thanking Yahweh for bringing us this far.

Confident that He will take us the rest of the way.

IN THE GOOD TIMES AND THE BAD:

"...but in Everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to Yahweh."
(Philp.4:6)

Europe Is Dead
(Copyright 02-23-2025) by Dwight Fleming (Oroville, California)

Another hard-hitting interview with Scott Ritter. This is a more extensive interview than the interview linked in my previous letter, "NATO Is Dead." Bible prophecy is unfolding before our very eyes.

Scott has high praise for President Trump's revolutionary agenda in making drastic changes that will eradicate the Deep State's hold on power and influence which has been pushing us toward World War III with Russia. Ritter does not "mince words" as he details Trump's overhaul of federal agencies and his efforts to re-establish relations with Putin for working out realistic solutions to the Ukraine conflict and many other common interests between the U.S. and Russia.

Scott also pokes holes in the false notion of Europe as a single entity. Rather, Europe is composed of separate sovereign countries which have differing views on their involvement and support of Ukraine. According to Ritter, Trump will form bilateral agreements with each European ally and not with Europe as a whole. This may well prove fatal to the European Union. And if Trump should eventually tell the various nations of Europe that they are totally responsible for their own security, then kiss NATO goodbye as well.

Scott listed what Russia would accept as a workable settlement of the Ukraine War. Putin pretty much has the upper hand and President Trump knows it. The stupidity of this war has become obvious to everyone but some hardline European war hawk leaders which may cost them their jobs soon if they don't wake up and smell the coffee.

Ritter reveals how the departure of many Western companies at the beginning of the war, actually strengthened Putin's hold on power. Despite the many sanctions imposed against Russia, the sanctions did not weaken the Russian economy but actually backfired and weakened the economies of many European countries, particularly, Germany. As a consequence of the West breaking ties with Russia, President Trump and European leaders now have practically no leverage in negotiating a peace settlement with Putin.

The months and years ahead will prove pivotal as Trump changes the geopolitical landscape with Russia and Europe. Make sure that you stay awake as things develop and perhaps rapid changes are made. Be sure not to miss one second of this revealing interview with Scott Ritter. It is a humdinger!

Repentance

(Copyright 02-23-2025) by Rod Reynolds (Wentzville, Missouri)

Repentance according to Scripture is necessary for salvation. Genuine repentance from a Scriptural standpoint is not just remorse, although it includes that, but a change in the way you think, and behave, and are – to a different way – to become a different person. Repentance from sin is a “change of mind [that] involves both a turning from sin and a turning to God” (Vine's Expository Dictionary).

In this message, we examine repentance from the standpoint of one's attitude towards God, neighbors, and self.

Dollars With Eyes

(Copyright 02-24-2025) by Dwight Fleming (Oroville, California)

On the back of a U.S. one dollar bill is a pyramid capped with an eye. This is the "eye of Providence" which symbolizes God's eye. God is certainly watching the affairs of men upon the earth and not via any paper currency.

"The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and His ears are inclined to their cry" (Psalm 34:15).

"The eyes of the LORD are in every place, observing the evil and the good" (Proverbs 15:3).

But evil men, lusting to have God-like power, now have the technology to place electronic "eyes" into our money for tracking our every financial move. This insidious spy system infiltrating a particular digital currency which is becoming ever more popular will eliminate any financial privacy that we presently enjoy by using cash rather than a bank card for a transaction.

The fear of a Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC) issued by the Federal Reserve has been somewhat alleviated by President Trump banning this possibility with a recent executive order. However, there are alternatives to a CBDC that may still be used for spying on Americans in hopes of catching thieves. Taylor Kenny reveals the possible danger of a cryptocurrency Stablecoin, particularly Tether (USDT) with her short report, linked below.

Unlike other cryptocurrencies, such as Bitcoin, a Stablecoin does not fluctuate in value, which makes it more suitable for everyday transactions rather as an investment vehicle. For more information on Stablecoin, see GENIUS Act Vs. Waters Bill: Competing Paths For U.S. Stablecoin Regulation. Also see, Tether \(cryptocurrency\) - Wikipedia.

Taylor provides this quote from Howard Lutnick, who was just sworn in as Secretary of Commerce: "With Tether, every action is online, every transaction is traceable, every asset can be seized, and every criminal can be caught."

With the U.S. Federal government being in debt over 36 TRILLION dollars and growing, any taxes that are not being paid by unscrupulous individuals or drug cartels would be subject to exposure if a Tether Stablecoin was the only means for doing business. Gone would be the anonymity and privacy enjoyed by any user of cash whether for honest and legal transactions or for dishonest gain by liars and thieves.

"I looked again, and there before me was a flying scroll. He asked me, 'What do you see?' I answered, 'I see a flying scroll, twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide.'

"And he said to me, 'This is the curse that is going out over the whole land; for according to what it says on one side, every thief will be banished, and according to what it says on the other, everyone who swears falsely [a liar] will be banished. The LORD Almighty declares, 'I will send it out, and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of anyone who swears falsely by my name. It will remain in that [financial] house and destroy it completely, both its timbers and its stones'" (Zechariah 5:1-4).

Zechariah reveals that a future "flying scroll" [symbolizing a digital transmission through the air via a dish to a satellite in orbit for approval when you make a transaction using a bank card] which will have instructions for limiting or catching any fraud or electronic thievery.

This will be considered a curse which God says He will send out against liars and thieves. Why would God do this?

"Will a man [like a thief] rob God? Yet you are robbing Me! But you ask, 'How are we robbing You?'

"In tithes and offerings. You are cursed with a curse, for you have robbed me, even this whole nation" (Malachi 3:8-9).

Regardless of who is in the White House, the Federal government is hemorrhaging billions of dollars that threatens its sustainability. Cutting out government waste and making the government more efficient is a great place to start. But it won't bring about economic prosperity, which is what is really needed to boost our economy so that tax revenues will flood into government coffers.

Only by honoring God with tithes and offerings so that His House is first blessed will the nation then be blessed. See Malachi 3:10-12.

With men, what can be used for good can also be used for evil. Any means that the government can use to gain more control over our lives will eventually be implemented. Zechariah five depicts a digital currency which will be able to banish thieves and liars or fraudsters. Yet it will come at a great cost of our privacy and freedom. This will not be the Mark of the Beast system but a probable forerunner to it.

Fossil Destruction

(Copyright 02-24-2025) by David Rives (Lewisburg, Tennessee)

The Biblical flood, as described in the Genesis account, presents a fascinating scenario that could have dramatically reshaped the Earth's landscape. The turbulent waters of the flood, which were said to have covered the Earth, caused significant geological changes, including erosion, sediment deposition, and the displacement of ecosystems! These events not only altered the physical appearance of the planet but also had profound implications for the fossil record.

Many people enjoy marveling at the grand skeletal structures of dinosaurs, such as the T-Rex, or the remains of extinct megafauna like the woolly mammoth and saber-toothed tiger. However, throughout history, approximately 95% of fossils ever found are marine organisms.

The first fossil I ever found was a crinoid, a type of sea creature, and my colleagues will all concur... marine life is the most abundant type by far. This raises the question: where did the vast array of terrestrial life go? During the flood, the immense volume of water, combined with the violent forces of nature, would have led to the rapid burial of living organisms.

This process is actually crucial for fossilization, as it protects remains from decay and scavenging. However, the chaotic conditions of the flood could also mean that many organisms, especially land creatures, were ripped apart, scattered, and not buried under the right circumstances to become fossils. According to the historical record, 150 days passed with intense flooding, a period likely characterized by earthquakes and geysers of scalding water due to water pressure. Additionally, the mixing of sediments from various environments complicates the search for pre-flood land creatures.

As sediments from mountains, valleys, and other geological features were redistributed, the fossil record would have become jumbled and redistributed. Today when you dig through strata, you're looking at a record of the order of deposition... typically the chronological order in which the animals were buried. But erosion taking place at the same time means that remains could have been scattered and then been reburied only hours later.

The Biblical flood was not just a small deluge but rather a monumental event corroborated by the exaggerated myths of many ancient cultures. The flood changed the world and the world took note. The post-flood environment would have been starkly different from the pre-flood world, and the reshaped landscapes and altered ecosystems would have led to completely new habitats for all life. The implications for actually understanding these scientific issues help us decipher the history of the world and the fossil record.

The Incredible Lynx

(Copyright 02-24-2025) by Doug Velting (Grand Rapids, Michigan)

Lynx on a rock: ID 67285849 © Oleg Shishkunov | Dreamstime.com

The lynx has always been one of my favorite wild cats, living in the cold northern forest where no other cat could survive. I remember one animal documentary that showed a Canada lynx chasing a snowshoe hare over deep snow. The cat and the hare were evenly matched as they raced over the snow. The lynx was gaining on its prey, but with a quick turn on the hare's part, it was able to escape. I remember being disappointed in the outcome, feeling sorry for this hungry feline.

There are two lynx species that inhabit the northern forest of the world, the Canada lynx and the Eurasian lynx.

The Canada Lynx

This wild cat is found throughout the vast boreal forests of Canada and Alaska. The Canada lynx is slightly larger than its cousin, the bobcat, standing at 19–22 inches at the shoulder with a weight of 18–24 lbs. God has equipped this northern cat with a thick fur coat and extremely large, furred paws to help it travel through thick snow. Although these northern forests support red squirrels, voles, and spruce grouse, the Canada lynx's major prey is the snowshoe hare. In fact, every ten years the snowshoe hare's numbers will crash, and when the hare population goes down so does the lynx population.

The “New” Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
April 5, 2025 --- Issue No. 218

This cat's hunting technique is similar to most other cats: stalking its intended victim to as close as it can and then making a fast dash and pouncing. If it is forced to chase this fast hare it will give up within 25 yards if the attempt is unsuccessful. The snowshoe hare also has large feet like the Canada lynx, but being lighter in weight can skim over deep snow better than the cat chasing it.

Mating occurs in the fall with 2–3 kittens coming in spring. The den usually is under a tree base or an outcropping of rocks.

The Eurasian Lynx

This variety of lynx is larger than its North American cousin. Standing at 26 inches at the shoulders with the males weighing 50–60 lbs and the females 25–40 lbs. This is the largest cat in Europe, and its range is all of the Scandinavian countries, the forest areas in Eastern Europe, and the northern forest of Asia.

Like its North American counterpart, this cat prefers old-growth timber but is adaptable enough to live on mountainsides and other rocky areas as long as this habitat provides enough brush and trees to give this cat cover to stalk its prey.

Being a larger cat than the Canada lynx enables the Eurasian lynx to take larger prey. Deer is included in its diet, as well as hares, rabbits, ground-nesting birds, squirrels, and mice. The fawns of the maral (Asia's elk) are taken when available.

This lynx hunts by stalking its potential prey and then pouncing on it in one or two bounds. The lynx's eyesight is excellent, having the ability to see a mouse at 250 feet, a hare at 1000 feet, and a deer at 1,600 feet.

Mating takes place in the fall and 2–3 kittens are born in the spring. The young grow fast and soon are large enough to start hunting with their mother. These young cats have much to learn and watch their mother carefully as she teaches them how to stalk and kill prey. The young depart in the fall to stake out their own territories.

The cold northern forests of North America, Europe, and Asia are cold and harsh places to live, but God created this cat with large, furred feet to travel in deep snow and a warm fur coat to handle the low temperatures. God gave the lynx what it needed to thrive in the habitat of the northern forest.

Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. Isaiah 40:28a

Jerking the Rug

(Copyright 02-25-2025) by Dwight Fleming (Oroville, California)

On August 15, 1971, President Nixon went on national TV to announce his decision to "jerk the rug" out from anyone wanting to convert their U.S. dollars into gold. This was also known as "closing the gold window" and taking the dollar off the "gold standard."

I remember seeing Nixon's world-shaking speech on a Sunday evening. In addition, Nixon also put into place a 90-day wage and price freeze in an attempt to curb inflation. I had graduated from high school in June of that year and would be starting college in September. I remember how the price controls locked in prices on the school books that I needed for my classes.

The "New" Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
April 5, 2025 --- Issue No. 218

What brought about Nixon's decision is covered in the video, linked below, and this Wikipedia article on the "Nixon Shock." See Nixon shock - Wikipedia. As you know, Fort Knox was built back in 1936 to hold gold bullion owned by the U.S. Treasury and other valuable assets. See United States Bullion Depository - Wikipedia.

Thanks to Elon Musk's auditing of government spending in order to eliminate waste and discover fraud, the question has arisen if there is any gold still stored at Fort Knox. Currently, the famous depository is supposed to be holding a little over 4,500 metric tons of gold. Gold bullion is also stored at the West Point Mint in New York.

Is there gold still stored at Fort Knox or has it been removed by government confiscation or by some mysterious villain as portrayed in the 1964 James Bond movie, Goldfinger? On the same par, perhaps the gold was taken by space aliens after their gooses stopped laying golden eggs.

Can the government be trusted to tell us the truth? Do you believe that the government told us the truth about the assassination of JFK? Well then, maybe there is some room for doubt. If the U.S. government wants to keep the confidence of American citizens and the world, then allow a livestream audit of Fort Knox.

But if it should be found out that there is little or no gold left at Fort Knox, then be ready for a worldwide shaking and a "jerking the rug" far greater than 1971. This "jerking the rug" is better explained by Andrei Jikh in his video presentation, linked below.

"I will shake all the nations, and they will come with all their treasures, and I will fill this house with glory,' says the LORD of Hosts. 'The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,' declares the LORD of Hosts.

"The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says the LORD of Hosts. 'And in this place, I will provide peace,' declares the LORD of Hosts" (Haggai 2:7-9).

Remember the dream that Jacob had where he saw a ladder or staircase? See Genesis 28:10-22. Jacob saw angels ascending and descending. Were these angels carry something of value either from heaven to the earth or from the earth to heaven? I believe so. And perhaps this valuable substance will someday be used to build God's house in the future after a great shaking. And if paper or fiat currency is next to worthless to purchase this valuable substance, then gold or silver will be the only form of money which would be accepted at that time after this great shaking.

To get a better perspective on the shaking that is coming, be sure to watch this short video. Here is the link:

Shake and Bake!

(Copyright 02-26-2025) by Dwight Fleming (Oroville, California)

"We ain't fakin'. Whole lotta shakin' goin' on," so goes the classic song by Jerry Lee Lewis. The shaking has begun!

The old order is being uprooted and removed. A new era is emerging from the ashes of yesterday's failed policies which too often ignored geopolitical reality causing chaos and suffering for millions throughout the world.

"Then the LORD reached out His hand, touched my mouth, and said to me [Jeremiah]: 'Behold, I have put My words in your mouth. See, I have appointed you today over nations and kingdoms to uproot and tear down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant" (Jeremiah 1:9-10).

Considering the above Bible quote, think Gaza, Ukraine, Iran, and Europe. Things are rapidly changing thanks to God's new lighting rod, Donald Trump. Europe is scrambling to adjust to the new reality that President Trump is bringing to the stage as he upends the old order of things. [Reminds me of Jesus overturning the tables of the money changers in the Temple] It is questionable if NATO will survive or even if the United Nations will survive if America withdraws its membership from either organization.

Two powerful videos, linked below, describe this overturning and uprooting now in progress. The first one with Scott Ritter. Ritter describes the revolution that President Trump has set in motion bringing needed change.

In the second video, Richard Wolff describes the turmoil that is taking place in Europe as Trump attempts to stave off the decline of the American Empire. What will arise remains to be seen. No doubt, the Bible reveals that a Beast power will eventually rise out of the political chaos of Europe depicted as a turbulent sea.

Exciting times are ahead as events lead toward the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. Don't let any personal problems cause you to fail to see the big picture. No amount of suffering that we may have to endure for Christ's sake will compare to the glorious crown that awaits us in God's kingdom. Onward Christian Soldiers!

Will Judah and Israel Go into Captivity Again?

(Copyright) by Rhoda Foust (Lehigh Acres, Florida)

What caused Judah and Israel to go into captivity?

Was it not Yahweh's command?

De 4:19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, [even] all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which Yahweh thy Elohim hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

Did they do just that?

Jer 8:2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

Notice they loved, served, walked with, sought and worshipped these things.

Why does Isaiah say this and Amos also.

Isa 1:14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear [them].

Am 5:21 I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

Why does he call them Your, not mine... Many say because they were unfaithful and didn't keep them right. But would he not say, you have corrupted my New Moons and Sabbaths (appointed feasts).

Scripture tells us how they worshipped the sun.

Eze 8:16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD'S house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, [were] about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

The “New” Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
April 5, 2025 --- Issue No. 218

When did they do that? At the first light of the sun.

Is this at least a part of the reason they went into captivity?

Other Scriptures:

De 17:3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded; 2Ki 23:5 And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven.

2Ki 17:16 And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, [even] two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

2Ki 21:3 For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven and served them.

Did they count the Holy Days right? Seems not to. Yahweh says He hates THEIR Feast Days. What happened? They wanted to serve the gods of Babylon, so He sent them into captivity where they got these ideas.

It is so easy to say, “that’s plain paganism. We don’t do that in our churches today.” Are you sure? We set a time to celebrate the birthday of Jesus on a date that’s not even His birthday. In addition to that we call it by a pagan name, Christmas, and teach our children to worship a non-existent man called “Santa Clause”. We celebrate the resurrection of Jesus on the first day of the week when actually He resurrected on the 7th day Sabbath. He had predicted He would be in the grave three days and three nights. No one can get three days and three nights from “Good Friday” to Sunday morning. Jesus told us not to call anyone “Father” (in place of God) and many call their so called “spiritual” leaders Father. Many people around the world, including most churches, keep Sunday (first day of the week) for God’s Sabbath not really caring whether God cares or not, that He set the seventh day (Sat.) for His Sabbath. He kept it with his countrymen on that day. So did the apostles. Our churches have accepted homosexuals for ministers, when God condemns the very act, as sinful, in His word. We eat things God explains that He didn’t create to be eaten, and we eat all kinds of “abominable” creatures in spite of His instructions of acceptable and unclean creatures, for our own good health. I could go on and on, all the things our good “Christians” do that God condemns. I can give scriptures to back it all up. We make up our own religions and pretend we are good Christians and expect God to accept it and bless us. But God says IF.

De 28:1 And it shall come to pass, IF thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

De 28:13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

De 28:14 And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

De 28:15 But it shall come to pass, IF thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

Read the rest of this warning. It is scary! Most “Christians” don’t even take God seriously; they don’t even read His message enough to know what He demands of His “called out ones”. Most people had rather have a one hour sermon about “Little baby Jesus” or how much Jesus loves us, and let someone else tell us something we want to hear, not what the Bible really says about God’s wrath. Yes, He loves us, but He said He chastises those He loves. So, we think because He has been merciful so far it will last forever. They think Jesus came and changed everything. Did you know there was no New Testament when Jesus and the apostles taught out of the scriptures? Jesus didn’t delete His Father’s laws, He came to make them more binding. He has even warned us that we also will go into captivity, during this age, unless we, as a nation, stop living the ways of death. The letter He gives to us in the book of Revelation warns us of what is going to happen eventually, if we don't change. It is going to happen; it just depends on us as to when. And from the way things are going in the world, it looks like it is not going to be too far into the future. What do you think? I think, if we don't clean up our sinful acts, we are in for some serious bad times in the future, that's going to be a lot worse than fore-closed homes.

New American Standard Bible (Proverbs 27:17)
As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.
