Just What Do You Mean "Ezekiel's Message"?

(Copyright) by Craig White (Australia)

Introduction

"Ezekiel"?! The very name conjures up thoughts of an Old Testament prophet railing against a sinful nation. A man whose message is studded with condemnations and wild visions unable to be understood. Warnings about lengthy periods of intense death causing diseases, famines, slavery. Mysterious visions about chariots, rods, Gog and Magog, a millennial temple. What do all these mean? Why should a Church of the twentieth century take the book seriously? Surely, many say, the book of Ezekiel was just a message for his time or are the ramblings of a very weird man.

But is this fair? Is this really the case or are these perceptions about Ezekiel unfounded? Can his prophecies be understood today? And do his writings have any relevance for us living in the midst of a pulsating, secular, humanistic and godless Western world?

To understand precisely what the Ezekiel Message really is, we need to:

- gain a knowledge of the historical roots of it;
- provide an adequate and precise definition of it by focusing on the subject matter;
- understanding of how it was presented over the years;
- examine the contents of the material we have access to which proclaims it;
- and finally determine if (and perhaps how) it should be proclaimed again today.

Many years ago, a major branch of the Sabbatarian Churches of God taught the 'Ezekiel Message' and believed that it had a 'Watchman Commission'. Yet it appears that few today remember it or have regard for this doctrine. Fewer still really understand the concept. What exactly is it?

Were Ezekiel Watchman proclamations the pronouncements by that Church's leader merely fanatical ravings? Did we give too much emphasis to it? Should it be proclaimed again today? before articulated and discussed in a formal way. The author also suggests a new title for this doctrine.

Let us now explore the historical background to this concept and its definition.

How the idea came to Mr. Armstrong

The person whom God raised up to lead a major branch of the end-time Church of God was Herbert W Armstrong. Mr. Armstrong and his wife fervently searched through God's Word for many years, basing their belief system on the branch of the Church of God they fellowshipped with, the Church of God (seventh day).

In 1931 Mr. Armstrong was ordained an elder of that Church by laying on of hands of the presbytery and members. He continued as an elder until his credentials were revoked in 1938 over two matters: holy day observance, and 'British-Israelism'. He maintained contact with them, but relationships dimmed until finally, in 1945, most contact between them ceased. However, many newer members of the Radio Church of God (which he founded in 1933) visited with and attended the Church of God (Seventh Day) in the early 1950s until this ceased sometime that decade.

From the earliest days of Mr. Armstrong's ministry, he had an intense interest in Bible prophecy. He believed that the system used by Satan over the centuries was a revival of the Roman Empire, known as the Holy Roman Empire. He strongly warned for years before World War II of the darkening war clouds on the horizon, singling out Hitler and Mussolini for special attention.

Prophecy is indeed a major portion of the Bible. J Barton Payne in his famous and authoritative Encyclopedia of Biblical Prophecy states that the Bible is 27% predictive, including types. But he does not include many of the types and 'hidden' prophetic messages. So, at least 33% of the Bible is prophecy. Payne lists Ezekiel as the most predictive book in the Bible with 821 verses devoted to the subject.

Returning to Mr. Armstrong’s interest in prophecy: He was not cognizant of the unique message contained within the book of Ezekiel for the end-time House of Israel at that time.

However, he did have a deep sense of a calling to be a witness and warning to the House of Israel. Mr. Armstrong read widely, including Judah’s Scepter and Joseph’s Birthright by John Harden Allen and he also read The Destiny of Britain and America by Lt. Col. Mackendrick whom he wrote to:

“I am writing you for two reasons: I am going to point out what I believe to be a slight error in your argument ... and I feel that a great message based on this Israel truth has been revealed to me which must be powerfully broadcasted to the whole world without delay.” (Letter from HW Armstrong to Mackendrick, 4 March 1929).

At that time Mr. Armstrong and the Church of God (Seventh Day) believed in the Three Angel’s Message doctrine – however, both he and that Church dropped that teaching sometime later. This teaching, however, seemingly laid the groundwork

In effect the three angels message taught the following: The first angel spread the Gospel across the world “for the hour of his judgement has come.” (Rev 14:6). The second angel concerns Babylon the great and has fallen because the nations of the earth are drunk on her fornications and suffer God’s wrath.

The third angel’s message which concerned Mr Armstrong was the mark of the beast – those who worship the beast and receive the mark will drink the cup of the wrath of God. It was important to Mr. Armstrong that this warning should now go forth. In fact, in 1928 he wrote the following:

“These men [Apostles], carrying the FIRST Angel’s Message, had the faith to perform miracles of healing. These miracles...greatly aided in winning lost souls to Christ ...

Then, glance for a moment, at the men whom God raised up to carry the Second Angel’s Message out to the world. Luther, Calvin, Wesley. Men who were filled with this wonderful power. Men who were heard around the world! Men who shook the world with their message and won millions to the side of Protestantism, out of the darkness and spiritual chaos of Roman Catholicism.

Now let us look frankly to the results being achieved by those who claim to be carrying the Third and last Angel’s Message. The prophecy says this Third Angel’s Message shall go forth “with a LOUD shout.” ...

The average man and woman today is not aware of the fact the Message has been going forth ... Most folks, it is true, are passively aware that there has been some agitation over the Saturday-Sunday question. But the question has not gotten actively into their consciousness ...

The Third Message is no more unpopular than were the First and the Second. And we are blessed with facilities for spreading the message which never were so much as dreamed of in the days of the First and Second Messages. (“Have We Tarried for the Power to Carry the Third Angel’s Message?” The Bible Advocate, 16 October 1928, p. 1)

It seems that this Third Angel’s Message doctrine laid the groundwork for the Ezekiel’s Message discussed below.

Here is Mr. Armstrong’s own account of how he was later awakened by God to the incredible Ezekiel Message:

In the January 1962 Plain Truth in installment 41 of “The Autobiography of Herbert W. Armstrong” he writes under the sub-heading “New Consciousness of Mission” (pages12-13) which developed about May 1941:

“About this time God impressed on our mind His real meaning of the prophecies in Ezekiel 33:1-19, and

3:17-21. The true significance of the entire Book of Ezekiel had been revealed for some time. But now, suddenly it took on immediate, and specific and personal significance.

“I had seen that Ezekiel was a prophet with a message for the future. He himself was in the captivity of the House of Judah ... But he was not sent a prophet with a message to these people at all ...

“Ezekiel was made a prophet to [the House of Israel] ... His message was a warning of invasion and total destruction of the nation’s cities. That invasion was for the future. That prophecy came more than 120 years after Israel already had been invaded and conquered ...”

Note that the emphasis was on national invasion of the House of Israel and mass destruction of their civilization. This is the crux of the matter – here is the heart and core of the Message.

“So now I saw Ezekiel was set a watchman – to watch international conditions as well as God’s prophecies – and when this invasion is preparing, and near, shortly prior to Christ’s coming to rule the world, he is to warn the people who had migrated, in Ezekiel’s day, to northwestern Europe and the British Isles! But Ezekiel never carried that warning! It was not for his time! He was used primarily to WRITE IT! It now became plain to me that God was to use a modern 20th-century “Ezekiel” to shout this warning ...”

Mr. Armstrong continues:

“I had no illusions that I was chosen to be the “modern Ezekiel” to proclaim this message. But I did know that no one was sounding this alarm. I did plainly see this sword of destruction and punishment coming. I knew the time was near. Perhaps, with World War II well under way, it was even then upon us. We could not, then, foresee that God would grant another recess period in the series of world wars before the final round to end at “Armageddon”.

“And I did see plainly that God said: “If the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned” that God would require the blood of the people – and now whole peoples - at the watchman’s hand!

“That was a stern warning to me. At least I was one of the watchmen who did see it coming! God had already placed the broadcasting facilities of three radio stations at my disposal.”

The above account of how the Ezekiel Message came to Mr. Armstrong provides us with a fascinating insight into the historical background to this doctrine and exactly what it is: a warning to the House of Israel of impending doom with the Church’s function today being not unlike that of the prophets of old.

Mr. Armstrong’s use of the term “Ezekiel’s Message”, was not to refer to the entire message of the book, but a particular feature or aspect of it – specifically warnings of soon-coming invasions (with consequent death camps which will be set up by invading hostile enemy armies) bent on wiping out the House of Israel.

In the late 1950s and early 1960s, for a short period in 1973 and again from about 1979-82, Ezekiel’s Message became the ‘right arm’ of the Worldwide Church of God’s mission and message, (apart from proclaiming of the Good News of the Kingdom of God). Please note: the Ezekiel Message is not (in fact never has been) a replacement for the True Gospel. During this end-time it is a tool to warn our peoples, wake up the nation and bring the repentant into the Church of God. Here they can securely practice their religion and keep God’s Laws in accordance with the repeated efforts of the prophets to Israel to repent and turn to God’s Law.

A list of many of the articles used over the years in the mold of the Ezekiel Message appear at the end of this paper.

The Ezekiel Message doctrine also found itself expressed in the Radio Church of God's Fundamentals of Belief, no. 18:

“18. We believe the Church is merely that body of believers who have, and are being led by the Holy Spirit; that the true Church of God is not a denomination; that the inspired name for this spiritual organism is "THE CHURCH OF GOD;" that the Bible name for each local assembly is "THE CHURCH OF GOD," and, considered collectively, "The Churches of God;" that the mission of the Church in this time is to preach the Gospel (Good News) of the coming KINGDOM OF GOD, (with special stress on the warning to America and Britain of the prophecies pertaining to them), into all nations as a witness, reaching the vast multitudes with power and conviction; to reconcile to God, and to save, thru Christ, such people as are now called; and to minister to the Church of God, strengthening and edifying the brethren in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.”

In a riveting article published in 1977, Mr. Armstrong wrote about “How I came to be going to Kings and Heads of Government” (Plain Truth, March 1977). This article reveals how God was dealing with the Church in different phases this century. In the article he writes:

“In those early days I was especially interested in the book of Ezekiel. A special reason was that I saw Ezekiel was first given God's message in prophecy, while he was a Jewish slave ... Now this was close to 120 years after the House of Israel had been taken captive to Assyria ... [many] were, by Ezekiel's time, in Britain and Western Europe.

“There is no reason to think his message was ever delivered to the House of Israel in Ezekiel's time. This message in fact is for today – and contained a warning of things to happen to Britain, America and the Western European nations now in our day.

“I saw clearly, back in those early days, that Ezekiel's prophecy was a message to be taken by some modern twentieth century servant of God – a “modern Ezekiel” to America, Britain, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

“I dwelt in hundreds of broadcasts on this book of Ezekiel and its warning of things ... to happen to Britain, the United States and Western Europe ... and so it was that Christ ... caused me to put special emphasis on Ezekiel's warning to our people, in our day.”

We see how this Ezekiel warning to our peoples was emphasized at that time. Mr. Armstrong then relates the parallels between Revelation 10:8-10 with Ezekiel 2:5-10; 3:1-3 which possibly indicates that the first part of his ministry was to proclaim the Message. While Rev 10:11 indicates that Mr. Armstrong would thereafter preach the Gospel to heads of government – which he did in a very diplomatic fashion. After this the spiritual temple would be weighed in the balance, so to speak (and might one add “found wanting”).

But note the original Greek wording in Rev 10:11: “again” in the Greek is “palin” which “carries through the idea of oscillatory repetition”, “anew”, “once again”, “once more” (Strong’s #3825). From it comes the word “paliggonesia” (#3824) which means “rebirth”, “spiritual renovation”, “regeneration” (ibid). Thayer’s lexicon shows it to mean “that restoration of the primal and perfect condition of things” (page 475). There may be a hint here of a repetition of the Work by various Churches of God (who may combine their resources to thunder out Ezekiel’s Message in the same dynamic fashion as Mr. Armstrong did).

This reminds me of the scripture:

“O Lord, I have heard Thy speech and was afraid: O Lord, revive Thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy” (Habbakuk 3:2).

Bullinger in his Companion Bible notes that “revive = renew, in the sense of repeating, doing over again” (page 1269). Strong’s Concordance states “quicken, recover, repair, restore (to life) ... save” (#2421). While Gesenius’ lexicon has this interpretation: “to live again, to revive ... to recover health, to be healed ... to call back to life, to restore life” (page 274).

Will Ezekiel’s Message by the Churches of God be repeated? I think it is a moot point – it has to be! This world cannot be left without a strong prophetic warning in these last days.

Over the centuries God’s scattered Church has taught the True Gospel, but also alongside that message we find that they emphasized other important matters pertinent to their generation. Today we must warn our peoples again of impending captivity and enslavement in foreign lands.

That is why I believe that “Ezekiel’s Message” could also be called “The Captivity Doctrine”.

A united Germany – backbone to a United fascist Europe!

Finally, let us understand what Ezekiel’s Message is not and what it is: it is not the Gospel; it does not replace the Gospel.

It is not an angry ‘fire and brimstone’ proclamation, and it is not just plain prophecy: it is a certain aspect of prophecy relevant to our day. It is specific to a people, a time and has an application: the House of Israel, the end-times and impending slavery for disobedience respectively. And it is trumpeted by Watchmen which we interpret as the Churches of God.

Defining Ezekiel’s Message

By calling Ezekiel’s Message The Captivity Doctrine, it may be understood by those unfamiliar with the concept. It also succinctly portrays this truth in a manner easily grasped. Let us take a brief look at some of the material on the subject and carefully analyze some of the relevant material to assist us to ascertain how they were written which would enable us to write similar articles today.

The booklet 1975 in Prophecy has been misunderstood and misinterpreted by many for decades. It may be viewed as the ultimate condensation of the Ezekiel Message. This energetic booklet shocked people out of their complacency. Its unfortunate title has been a major reason for derision being brought upon this doctrine from certain quarters. Yet it contains vital information for us in a brazen way and a style which is becoming more and more acceptable to the community at large today (the type of graphic details portrayed by Basil Wolverton are a part of our mass culture today).

In many ways it was a work ahead of its time. Many other booklets have been published which are also very strong and useful, but are not Ezekiel Message type material as such: The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse; Is this the End Time?; Are we Living in the Last Days?; The Mark of the Beast; The Middle East in Prophecy; Who is the Beast?; The Book of Revelation Unveiled at Last!; The Modern Romans and How to Understand Prophecy.

The 1975 in Prophecy booklet was by far the most stunning and startling. Its title has led to the assumption that Mr. Armstrong taught 1975 as the date of Christ’s return. Rather, the booklet was trying to catch people’s attention with a sensational title. I have before me a book Famine 1975! by William and Paul Paddock which used similar tactics. Another is The Coming Plague, or Newly Emerging Diseases in a World out of balance by Laurie Garrett and of course George Orwell’s 1984.

The booklet took the following outline:

- an introduction
- Good news of the coming Utopia
- trends toward German resurgence
- The prophesied US of Europe (under German control and leadership)
- Coming Drastic Weather Changes
- World War III
- The great National Calamity and WHY our peoples will be punished
- Why all life will not be annihilated
- Americans and Britons to be made slaves
- The Day of the Lord
- Divine intervention
- Satan put away
- the Millennium

What is so wrong with the above? However, from the above we can deduce the following:

- criticism of the booklet has been unjustified as focus has been on the negative aspects rather than the majority of positive aspects
- the booklet is not just full of doom and gloom
- it addresses a subject others did not
- it discusses the Day of the Lord as a literal event which few works by this world’s groups do
- the title was unfortunate, but most of the booklet was accurate, pulsating, exciting and Biblically sound
- no apology is required

The booklet was laced with startling graphics portraying the end times, tribulation, Day of the Lord and the Wonderful World Tomorrow. It woke up many people and led them to Christ. Let us now attend to another article.

The pictures on these two pages were taken by Pfc. Bertram Sanders, 103d cameraman, at one of the concentration camps in Landsberg shortly after the city's capture by the 41stth

Are concentration camps coming back?

In true Ezekiel Message fashion, Herbert Armstrong wrote:

“What is this abomination? This refers to Daniel 11:31 and Matthew 24:15... That will be a time when the UNITED Europe shall appear—the revival of the medieval “Holy Roman Empire.” We shall then be warned, and readied to be taken to a place of refuge and safety from the Great Tribulation. Forty-five days later “the beasts armies” will surround Jerusalem. Thirty days later the Great Tribulation will probably start with a nuclear attack on London and Britain—and possibly the same day or immediately after, on the United States and Canadian cities. The GREAT TRIBULATION, we shall fully then realize, is the time of “Jacob’s Trouble,” spoken of in Jeremiah 30:7. And Jacob’s name was named on Joseph’s sons, Ephraim, and Manasseh (Gen. 48:16). At that time a third of the people in our nations will die, or shall have died, by famine and disease epidemics; another third will die of the war—our cities being destroyed (Ezek. 6:6), and the remaining third will be carried to the land of our enemies as slaves (Ezek. 5:12).” (“The Time We Are In, Now,” Pastor General’s Report, Vol 1, No. 15, November 20, 1979, p2).

In 1980 Mr. Armstrong wrote one of the last articles on the subject which was published in the Plain Truth “America the Beautiful. America the Condemned”. Mr. Armstrong commences the article by stating:

“This is the most seriously in-earnest article I have ever written for The Plain Truth. Our beloved country – yours and mine – now faces total destruction.

“... A third of our people – white English-speaking people and minorities with us – will die in a disease epidemic such as the world never experienced ... I do not know whether in two or three years – or in another decade or more – but sooner than people think!” [so much for Mr. Armstrong supposedly setting dates]

“Wake up! Readers of The Plain Truth! If they [religious leaders of this world] have not the courage to tell you, I have!”

In the article Mr. Armstrong provides an intense and strong warning to the USA, drawing heavily upon the prophecies of Ezekiel. He stresses that while Ezekiel wrote the prophecies, Israel was already in captivity. It stands to reason then that these prophecies are for our day, today. There must be Ezekiel Watchmen who take the warning message to the House of Israel.

"The lamentations and woes of the message to be carried to Israel never occurred in Ezekiel's time or later. They are to strike America and Britain in our time." The watchman "is to watch events as they fulfill prophecies leading up to what Ezekiel is to warn the "lost" 10-tribed Israel about ... and warn the 20th century house of Israel when such military invasion is reasonably imminent."

Mr. Armstrong then addresses the central core of the warning message:

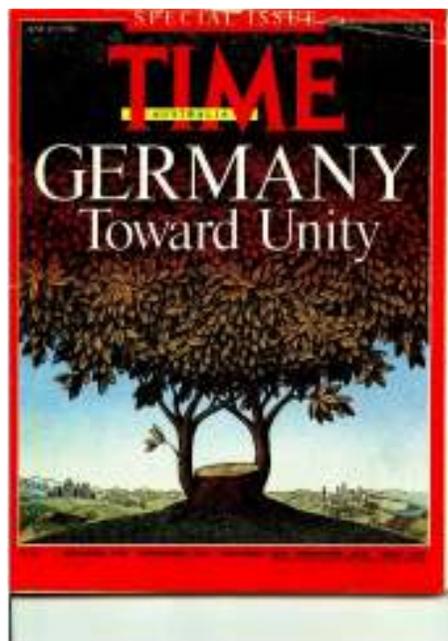

"Now what is the very crux of Ezekiel's warning? It is found in chapters 5 and 6."

In brief, it provides a warning to Israel of impending slavery due to their false doctrines and false religions (so-called Christianity and other sins such as humanism, liberalism and so on) and that God will not spare His wrath: one third of Israel will die from horrible disease epidemics, one third from warfare and invasion and the final third will be taken captive and placed in slave labor camps (including captivity in strange lands).

There are of course many other articles I would like to analyze, but one has to keep the article within manageable limits. Brilliant articles such as "Now God Speaks to You Ministers", "Slave Labour Camps are Coming Back!", "What will the "Tribulation" Really be Like?", "Uncovering a 2500-year-old Time Capsule", are all worthy re-reading.

Cruel slaughters on entire populations are foretold in the Scriptures. Terrifying events are on the horizon. Or as Mr. Armstrong stated in the aforementioned article, "This is to be the most terrible fate ever to happen to any people".

He continues to castigate the house of Israel, showing how we inherited the promises to Abraham via the British Empire and the awesome might which is America's. But the warning is simple: empires come and go. Yet citizens of those empires sometimes think that they last forever. They don't. The British Empire has already disappeared into the mists of history. The USA is structurally in decline, yet she sees it not. Our nations are gradually being weakened to such an extent that other nations (particularly Germany heading up a US of Europe and Japan) will fill the vacuum. They will eventually sense an opportunity to strike at the Anglo-Saxon Powers. And strike they will! Indeed, with such sudden devastation that we will not be prepared for it.

Germany is united! Compare this graphic with Daniel 4:14-16, 23, 26

The “New” Church of God Messenger

Our leaders think that their salvation is in some kind of an international superstructure – a New World Order of free trade and the mixing of religions and races to eventually produce one world. Yet such policies serve to weaken us day-by-day. The Anglo-Saxon Powers are at the helm of the push toward a world superstructure which they hope will produce a world of peace and plenty. Yet there are other nations who do not share the same vision for a New World Order. Their Order is far more dictatorial and one which preserves their identity, culture, and religious heritage. They will eventually stand up and galvanize world opinion against the current trends. They will wish to dominate a New World Order and eventually come into ethnic, ideological, and religious conflict with the Americans and British.

Several prophecies indicate that the House of Israel will be divided up among her enemies – a concept written about in other material by myself and History Research Projects. One in Joel 3:2b speaks of the scattering of Israel and the parting or dividing of Israel amongst her enemies. Amos 7:17; Mic 2:4 and Dan 11:39 seem to tell a similar tale.

Australia itself may be divided up by secret agreement between India, Japan, and Indonesia. For instance, Japan may take the Eastern States; Indonesia Northern Territory and South Australia; and India Western Australia. Similarly, Russia may have Alaska returned to her by Europe if she keeps out of the crisis; the Carribeans may be given the South-east USA; Mexico the South-West; Japan may take Hawaii and Europe will divide up the rest of the continent.

Our nations are heading for the most shocking and terrible times of trial never before experienced by any people. National captivity is prophesied in our Bible!

Yet, as Mr. Armstrong reveals, some will be worthy to escape. He also warns at the very end of the article:

"I have not overestimated the seriousness of this! The time has now come for this serious warning to go forth in mighty power! Millions will see this warning in The Plain Truth!"

So, what is the Ezekiel Message/Captivity Doctrine in a nutshell? It is a very serious and potent warning to the House of Israel of impending invasion, military collapse, captivity, and slavery. It is NOT a general, broad prophetic message. It is very serious, hard-hitting, and potent.

Final Thoughts: Back to the Future!

Today few seem to be interested in representing the true thrust of this doctrine. Sometimes there seems to be a lack of focus and attention given to this truth which is a vital part of our spiritual roots. Note the poem of F.R.A. Glover of England, 1861:

"When a Land [read Church] rejects its legends [read 'Ezekiel's Message'],
Sees but falsehoods in the past [read 'waters down the full truth'],
And its People [read Church members] view their sires [read "the deceased leader"]
In the light of fools and liars,
'Tis a sign of its decline,
And its splendours cannot last.
Branches [read the end-time Churches of God] that but blight their roots, Yield no sap for lasting fruits" [i.e., there will be no growth].

So, will the Ezekiel Message/Captivity Doctrine be proclaimed again in a powerful way to the house of Israel? Undoubtedly so! But it may well come from a resurgence in interest for the writings of Herbert W Armstrong within the various Churches of God. Indeed, there may come a nostalgia for the strong meat and truths he taught which are being watered-down today.

But there are those who are trying to undermine our truths. Allow me to quote from Cicero who wrote this of fifth columnists in 42 BC:

"A nation [read Church] can survive its fools and even the ambitious [and there are plenty of those again]. But it cannot survive treason from within [like those who water-down the truth]. An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for he is known, and he carries his banners openly. But the traitor [like a leader who pretends to be a shepherd] moves among those within the gate freely, his sly whispers rustling through all the alleys, heard in the very halls of government itself. For the traitor appears not traitor! He speaks in the accent familiar to his victims and he appeals to the baseness that lies deep in the hearts of all men. He rots the soul of a nation [or Church]. He works secretly and unknown in the night to undermine the pillars of a city; He infects the body politic so that it can no longer resist. A murderer is less to be feared”.

One could get the impression of a ‘don’t care’ attitude today. Or a ‘the two witnesses will do the Work’ so ‘we can have a nice social club each Sabbath’ approach. We of all people have a duty of care and should have a burning desire to warn our peoples. Otherwise, our indifference will be noted by God and we will pay the consequences. Matthew Henry’s Commentary, written in the 18th century has an excellent message for us in this regard:

“Lukewarmness [something Herbert Armstrong warned us against] or indifference in religion is the worst temper in the world. If [true] religion is a real thing, it is the most excellent thing, and therefore we should be in good earnest in it ... If religion is worth anything, it is worth every thing; an indifference here is inexcusable: Why halt you between two opinions? If God be God, follow him; if Baal (be God), follow him ... Christ expects that men should declare themselves in earnest either for him or against him” (A Commentary on the Whole Bible, vol 6, p 1135).

We need to be earnest as Matthew Henry declares – fired up with real ZEAL to reach out to warn our peoples before it is too late! We should not be jealous of the zealous ones and denounce them – but supportive of them. The big question is whether we have love for our national brethren or a lukewarm and lazy attitude wanting to hide our light under a bushel. Do we want to reach out or protect our hides? Do we have a give or a get attitude? Remember what our Bible warns us about: those who wish to save their lives will inevitably lose it.

The double-headed eagle – symbol of western and eastern Europe operating as one

Now is indeed the time for a thorough and proper EZEKIEL MESSAGE/CAPTIVITY DOCTRINE to go forth again to this world, together with the Good News of the soon-coming return of our Messiah, Jesus Christ, to establish the Kingdom of God on earth. It is this God-given duty which must be trumpeted by the end-time Churches of God collectively, fulfilling the role of the Ezekiel Watchman (it is not a commission given to any individual today but to the collective Body of Christ).

One final thought: the book of Ezekiel itself warns us of the consequences for not proclaiming this warning message (Ezek 33:6).

The war cry of the End Time Church of God Sabbatharians must now be, as we attempt to revive our roots and truths long buried under the rubble of misunderstandings, overreactions, lack of knowledge and gradual watering-down: “BACK TO THE FUTURE!”

In regard to: Explanation of Creation

Article by Ray Daly
Comments by Ray Daly (Lincoln, North Dakota)
and Laura Lee (Bismarck, North Dakota)

Ray writes:

In response to your comments on my article in issue #23. You give the "three" definitions of God. #430. "The plural of #433, ANGELS... (especially with the article) of the SUPREME God." Or the created along with their Creator. #433. "A deity [the plural of #41], and the deity [Supreme God of #410], and the "el. Mighty and Almighty". Clearly two categories.

Thus in Gen. 1:26, when it says, "Let US create man in OUR image, after OUR likeness", then whom else could it be speaking of, unless it is to other Angels. Meaning the specific Angels must have created humans at that time. And it is also likely that the Almighty created Adam and Eve in his image. Now, is it even possible that the Almighty is three colors? But the Angels that created men, can have other colors. And they can be giants or pygmies.

Laura writes:

I will say one thing for you Ray, you have a vivid imagination, but you lack understanding when you try to put scripture together. There is God the Father and Jesus Christ the Son.

Gen 1:26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. Gen 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

When God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness:" He was not talking to or about angels here. Christ is the creator of everything.

Col 1:16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: Col 1:17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

So no, angels did not create anything, Christ created everything. Forget the colors, it is something you are making up based on nothing.

Ray writes:

There is one main point about those humans that the Angels. The "sons of God" spoken of in Gen. 6:4 are said to include "giants". And, that they "came in unto the daughters of men". Or the "white" daughters of Adam. Here's the catch. Those humans created by the Angels, did not have a "spirit of man" with in them. It was by their marrying into Adam and Eve's line that they received the Holy Spirit. As is shown best in the Amplified Bible. Ecc. 11:5. "As you know not what is the way of the wind, or how the spirit [of man] comes to the bones in the womb of a pregnant woman, even so you know not the work of God."

Laura writes:

Gen 6:4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. Gen 6:5 And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. Gen 6:6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

Yes, these are hard to understand scriptures and we have heard many explanations in regard to them. One thing about these is clear. The “sons of God” are not angels.

Heb 1:5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

Hebrews 1:5 is twofold. It is saying two things, #1=Christ is not an angel (because God calls him a son). #2=None of the angels have ever been called sons by God.

We can only know what the Bible tells us and what God reveals to us through the Bible. The bottom line is that we know two things for sure about the created beings in heaven. #1=They all have free will (so they can stay good or go bad as Satan did). #2=We know that God and Christ are in heaven. We know good angels are in heaven and we also know there are 24 elders in heaven (Rev. 4:4 & 4:10). So how many other created beings are in heaven and how many of them stayed good and how many went bad? We can't answer that question at this point in time because we just do not know.

Some claim that the Book of Job's references to “Sons of God” are talking about angels, but I disagree with that.

Job 1:6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

Job 2:1 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

Both verses are definitely talking about something that is in heaven. We know from other scriptures that it cannot be talking about humans as they are not in heaven, and it can't be talking about angels because they are never called “sons of God”.

Angels are called stars in the Bible.

Rev 1:20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

Rev 12:4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

So, when we look at Job 38:7 we can see that we are talking about two different created beings here. The stars which are the angels, sang together. And the “sons of God” who shouted for joy and that we know are not humans in this instance.

Job 38:7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

Now comes the controversial part. Since we know there are other created beings in heaven, could these “sons of God” in heaven be a reference to “lesser gods” which were created to be part of the God family in heaven? There is some evidence of this found in Psalms.

Psa 82:1 A Psalm of Asaph. God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods. Psa 82:2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah. Psa 82:3 Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy. Psa 82:4 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked. Psa 82:5 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course. Psa 82:6 I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High. Psa 82:7 But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes. Psa 82:8 Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

The legend goes that these gods were created and in heaven. They were to rule the nations of the earth, but they are bad gods. These gods are called children of god and even though they are gods, they will die like men.

This is a logical explanation of Genesis 6:4 because bad angels have some or even most of the same powers as the good angels. So, if these are created lesser gods and some went bad like Satan, they would still have many of the same powers as God but lesser. God can procreate as we know, or Christ would not have been born to the virgin Mary. God can also resurrect.

So, the legend goes that these lesser gods may have been the gods of Genesis 6:4 who are the “sons of god” which mated with daughters of men and created these giants. It is also said that this may have been the egregious sin that led God to destroy the earth with a flood in Noah’s day.

It is clear that whatever is being spoken of here needs to be developed further, so if anyone has input to add to this, it would be appreciated.

Ray writes:

Think about it. If Adam and Eve brought forth the three races, then why was it that God saw to it that they were separated from one another after the flood? After all, would they not have been "one family"? You may not accept it, but it almost has to be that of the three sons of Noah, only Shem was of Adam and Eve, and the other two were "adopted", thus enabling all three races to continue. Consider how it was a sin for Nimrod to try to "mix" the races. Why, if they were all of the same family line?

Believe as you will, but I find Scripture showing the above to be Truth.

Laura writes:

The races were coded into the DNA by God. A black person and a white person can bring forth a white baby or a black baby. At the time that slavery was abolished in the United States those slaves who could pass themselves off as white many times did so in order to have a better life. There are instances in the United States where white people have given birth to black babies not even knowing that there was even an ancestor in their family that was black.

The three sons of Noah that came through the flood were the sons of Noah and his wife. None of them were adopted. The reason God scattered the people at the time of the tower of babel was because they all had one language and knowledge from before the flood and they sought to do what God did not want them to do.

Obviously, God wanted the different races to stay together as one race. Satan is the one that wants to mix the races until you can't tell anymore which race, they really are. Look at what the communist regime of Biden and Harris are doing right now. They let anyone come into our country because they want the races to be mixed beyond recognition. Even though they are color blind to their own whiteness, the idea is to eliminate all white people and some white people are helping them do this.

Most of what you said Ray is not scriptural and some of it you made up but did not label it as such.

In regard to: One Flaw in Women

Article Sent by Rich Daniels
Comments by Nathaniel Burson (Big Sandy, Texas)

I don't believe Ray Daly's comment was a put down of women; he was simply trying to bring the author of that poem back down to Earth by pointing out that women were people, and that people are flawed, and this glowing portrait of angels is not in touch with the reality of what any human being is - it was more a description of the Catholic virgin Mary than anything else.

I think we all know that women and men are both sinners, and both responsible for their sins. Yet this poem teaches us that women are not sinners, and that literally their only flaw is excessive humility. You printed it, you defended it - is that truly what you believe?

This poem is a dorky Mother's Day card that has no place in a Bible newsletter. Ray was right to question you on it, and you owe him an apology.

Editor's Note: I can see you and Ray are both on the same page. You both have an unhealthy attitude about women. Much of Ray Daly's comments in regard to women were derogatory towards women. In other words, it is one thing to not like something that is printed but then when you go through a whole bunch of women in the Bible saying that they nagged until their husbands had sex with their handmaids is just plain as you put it yourself "dorky". Ray did the same thing in his opinion piece which Adam did when God confronted him. Gen 3:12 And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

In other words, Adam blamed his wife Eve because she gave him fruit and he ate it. Ray is saying that the wives he mentioned nagged their husbands until they had sex with their wives' handmaids. The problem is that Adam chose to eat the fruit when he knew it was wrong. Just like these Bible men chose to have sex with their wives' handmaids even though they knew it would cause future problems, which in many cases it did.

I am sure if someone had sent us a poem building up the ego of men and we printed it, men would be silent because they like the ego strokes. Guys it is a poem written by author unknown. This poem has nothing to do with sin or humility or even nonexistent women. It describes how most women feel and the sacrifices they make for their families. Sacrifices that you and Ray will never see in any woman because you only want to see women as below yourselves and not of much value. The poem is talking about the value of women and not whether they sin or not. Most women never know their worth especially when they are married to men with the attitude that you and Ray have.

I will give no apology to either one of you because I did nothing wrong to apologize for. I also believe this newsletter is an appropriate place to publish such poetry when other people who get the newsletter send us these items. I thank God every day that I no longer have to endure the daily put downs by men such as yourself and Ray Daly who for some reason were never taught to respect and value not just their wives but all women. God made all people equal and in His image. My prayer is that someday the both of you will understand that point. Laura Lee

Directed at Nathaniel Burson's Comments:

Actually, when I read this poem, it reminded me of the Proverbs of the virtuous woman and how the "Proverbs of Solomon the son of David", (Pro. 1:1) extolled the virtuous women who has her self-worth recognized by a man who gives honor to whom honor is due. Proverbs 31:10-31 The poem had nothing to do with sin verses sinless. It seems anyone can criticize another mans-woman's work to make themselves feel much better than others rather than to consider others better than themselves as the Bible suggests we should do. Philippians 2:3 (KJV) Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than themselves.

Did you catch that you "men of glory"? Yes, consider even women better than yourself! See if you can swallow that and fulfil the God ordained way of seeing yourself as you fill your "lofty" idea of your greatness more over than your wife or women in general.

So have a nice day and let the "righteous" say, "I am so glad I am not as other men (women) are, I give tithes of all that I owe"-ah, you know the rest of the story!

Proverbs 14:1 (KJV) Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

So, there are wise women as there are a few wise men. Why do I say, "a few"? Look around you, past and present, see how well men who have overseen rulership over nations and tell me how righteously they have "ruined" God's earth. Hey, men, pat yourselves on each other's backs, KUDOS! AH, once again, do it a second time! Feels good, doesn't it? Yet, all the while many men beat their wives into submission. Please, give me a break!

I'm just being honest. You all should try that some time.

The poem was meant to honor women. Perhaps someone can make up a poem to honor men and I'm sure you would relish that, and it probably wouldn't bother you at all if it ended up in a "Biblical newsletter".

In regard to: Critical Race Theory and the Bible Answer

Article by Eddie Hyatt
Comments by Ray Daly (Lincoln, North Dakota)

I am writing regarding the article in your new mailing, by Eddie Hyatt. "The Critical Race Theory...". An excellent article. And one which is clearly covered by Scripture.

I found your article in the latest publication of "The "New" Church of God Messenger" to be very interesting, and very True. For in the coming reign of Jesus the Christ, all who have been, and will become receptive of, and accept and live by his message, will be as they are one family. White, black, yellow, or mixed.

However, I find that, while they will be all equal in The Almighty's and his Son's eyes, they will themselves have their ministries apart from one another. In other words, black believers in the coming resurrection will be with the black peoples. The yellows with the yellows. The whites with the whites. And the mixed races with the mixed races. It is not so much as all being within other nations, but as being "one with Christ" in their own nations. All teaching the same message of salvation to non-believers.

I find the above to be shown in Mat. 25:31-32. "When the Son of man shall come in his glory...Then he shall sit upon his throne of glory. And before him shall be gathered all nations. And he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats."

In other words, the black brethren will go to the blacks in their former given homelands. The yellow will go to the nations of the yellow. The white to the white. And the mixed to the mixed.

Thus, again, while they will all be "brothers", they will do their works within their own kind.

In regard to: Teaching of the Tithe

Article by Ray Daly

Comments by Laura Lee (Bismarck, North Dakota)

There are commanded assemblies for all the Sabbaths and Holy Days, read Leviticus 23. So, they weren't just eating and drinking strong drink for the feasts of God. The Feasts of God are not parties, they are places where people gather together to worship and learn about God.

As far as the tithe, it was mostly collected for the Levites because of their service in the temple.
